

THE | OXFORD & CAMBRIDGE SINGING SCHOOL

Summer 2017

24th - 28th July 2017

St Catharine's College, Cambridge

About us

Established in 2013, The Oxford and Cambridge Singing School is for boys and girls aged 7–13 who love to sing. The singing school was established to give children the opportunity to sing great classical music with world class coaches in a relaxed and fun environment and to develop their confidence and ability in singing and performing.

About the course

Based at St Catharine's College in central Cambridge, pupils will learn some beautiful music and at the same time gain a background in vocal technique, music theory and history. This summer we will be working on some of the greatest early 19th century Romantic pieces - Ave Maria, by Schubert and Mendelssohn's 'O for the Wings of a Dove' and 'I waited for the Lord', amongst others.

Families are most welcome to come and listen to a mini-concert at the end of each day. Courses include whole-group singing, musical games and exercises to improve sight reading, small group vocal coaching and much more.

"Thank you for another fabulous course! I'm not sure what my son would do without you during the holidays!"

Places are limited. Please book early to avoid disappointment.

We have regular courses in Oxford, Cambridge and London. For more information and to book a space, please visit our website.
