

Year 6 French

Year 6 are learning to talk about their house in French this week. They have been learning about the different rooms in the house and have produced some fantastic work describing their houses in details. Here is an example of Hannah's work.

