

Your Invitation to my Online Orchestra - La Bamba

If you haven't yet seen the Cambridgeshire Music online orchestra challenge video for Hawaii Five-O, do please take a look, it was great fun to do - <https://youtu.be/mQvQaZ4r8zs>

Following that success, we are now doing another classic - La Bamba.

The Crash Attack and Bash Street Kids students will already know this as we had been rehearsing it for this year's Summer concert. I've since updated it, made a few tweaks and added orchestral instruments, keyboards, guitars and singers into the mix so that everyone can get involved. It would be great to see some more St Faith's faces on our next video. Siblings, friends and parents are also welcome.

This opportunity is free to enter and my way of keeping us all entertained and musically connected during this strange time. If you have time to support the project, I'd really appreciate it.

More details are available here: <https://www.cambridgeshiremusic.org.uk/pages/discover-music/projects-and-events/>

Mr Aldous
Peripatetic Music Teacher