

Foundation Maths

The children in Foundation have been thinking about numbers to a 100. They enjoyed developing good learning habits by working with a partner to show what a 100 looks like. Some children choose to make 100 using loose part boxes, others used counters and a pair, joined with another, to make a paper chain. "A hundred is a really big number," one child told another.

